Lane Gets Nominated After Strenuous Fight

John C. Lane was nominated by the Republican Convention for the office of Mayor shortly before midnight Saturday on the third ballot, after a deadlock had been broken by the withdrawal of Hustace of his own name. Lane led on the first ballot by a small margin. It was to be seen that Hustace was out of the race, and the observation was made that Lucas was certain of the nomination, as Hustace would swing his followers over to Jack. But Hustace was still in it at the count of the second ballot, though he had lost about half his vote, and the other candidates had gained. Then Hustace made his withdrawal, and asked that his supporters go over to Lucas. This latter part of his talk was not spontaneous, apparently, as he left the platform, and later returned to make it.

Geo. W. Smith took the chair and called for nominations for Deputy Sheriff from the Honolulu district. Eli Crawford nominated Chris. Holt, a young man who would, he thought, get the support of all the district.

E. K. Liliakani placed the name of Arthur McDuffie in nomination. Woodward nominated Henry Van Gieson. Kaneoka moved the nominations be closed.

John Bell nominated Frank Pahia for Deputy Sheriff for Koolaukoko. S. W. Logan nominated L. K. Naeone for Koolaukoko.

A Waiwae man nominated Oscar Cox for Deputy of Waiwae. Nawaoka nominated John Fernandez for Deputy for Ewa.

W. H. Melnery nominated Edgar Henriques for Senator. E. W. Quinn was nominated by H. P. Wood.

James Holt nominated James Boyd. Clarence Cooke placed the name of John Hughes before the convention. Woodward nominated E. A. C. Long.

Halekauwila nominated Kalelopu for the Senate. Kalelopu withdrew, stating that he would rather run for the House.

Chas. Chillingworth wanted to know if any of the candidates for the Senate could also be nominated for the House. Rawlins disagreed with Lucas.

Nahora Hipsa said that such action could not be taken. Chairman Judd withdrew Hipsa.

Dwight said he desired to have Kalelopu run for the Senate. Kalelopu said that he had not made any attempt to get a nomination. He came merely as a delegate.

James Holt moved the nominations be closed. Carried.

Buffandeau moved that a recess of fifteen minutes be taken.

Hipsa made a new suggestion — that one district take a recess while the other one keeps on working.

Hipsa also said that he did not "like any black horses to come before this convention."

Carlos Long wanted the rules amended so that candidates for the Senate could also be nominated for the House. Rawlins disagreed with Lucas.

The Fifth District then took a recess for fifteen minutes, while the Fourth remained in session.

Clarence Cooke took the chair for the Fourth District.

Liliakani nominated J. C. Cohen for Representative.

A Hawaiian delegate nominated Lima Kahaunaele.

Dan Kamahu nominated John Kamano.

Woodward nominated Solomon Hanohano.

Robinson nominated Kaleo. Chas. Chillingworth nominated A. D. Castro.

A Hawaiian delegate nominated J. Makalena.

Geo. W. Smith nominated R. W. Shingle. Shouts of "Kokua."

Robert Baker was nominated. A. F. Clark nominated E. A. Douthitt.

The nominations were then closed.

Fifth District Session
A. F. Judd was selected as temporary chairman.

Cox asked the Honolulu districts to allow the country districts two nominations out of the six.

Logan also made the same request. This was acceded to. For the outside districts, Chas. Arnold nominated Ruel Kinney and E. B. Mikalenti. S. P. Correa nominated A. S. Kalelopu.

Geo. Kaea was nominated. D. K. Kama nominated Chas. Kaneoka.

Wallace nominated E. N. Voeller. Jos. Kalana was nominated by Sol. Mahelela.

Nahora Hipsa was nominated by a Hawaiian delegate.

Bernard Kelekele was nominated by A. S. Kalelopu.

Kaneoka moved nominations be closed, but he was out of order.

Charley Clark moved that the caucus proceed to vote on the Honolulu district, leaving out the country districts.

Kaneoka's motion to close nominations was ruled in order by Chairman Judd.

Waterhouse said that the caucus could make its own rules, not being bound to the rules of the whole convention.

Clark moved that the Honolulu district get together and settle their four men, the two selections of the country districts already being settled upon. This carried.

Melnery said that they were out of order because voting booths were not ready for secret balloting. He afterward stated that he was under a wrong impression when he made the above statement.

It was finally decided to report to the convention that thirteen names had been nominated.

The whole convention was then called to order by Chairman Judd.

The Fourth District asked to convene for a few minutes, as E. A. C. Long wanted to withdraw from the Senatorial contest. This was allowed, and Rawlins nominated Long for the House.

The nomination reports of the Fourth and Fifth Districts were then read by Judd.

A recess was taken until 7 o'clock, when candidates would make their pledges.

The selection of the County Committee was next in order. The precincts were called number by number to name their committeemen. On account of the change in precinct numbers there was considerable confusion for some time, but it was decided to allow the delegates under the old precinct numbers to vote.

They were selected as follows:
Fifth District County Committeemen
Precinct 1, John Bell; 2, Wm. P. ohukano; 3, L. K. Naeone; 4, S. W. Logan; 5, M. P. Cox; 6, Fred. Meyer; 7, D. Douglas; 8, Chas. Arnold; 9, Eli Crawford; 10, Geo. R. Barker; 11, F. F. Fernandez; 12, A. S. Kalelopu; 13, A. F. Judd; 14, S. Pahia Mahelela.

Fourth District County Committee
Precinct 1, E. A. Douthitt; 2, J. L. Holt; 3, E. H. Paris; 4, Chas. Coster; 5, O. P. Phillips; 6, J. F. Eckardt; 7, C. L. Crabbe; 8, D. Kawahon; 9, G. Chalmers.

Later Saturday night Clarence Cooke was added to the committee.

EVENING SESSION
The evening session was called to order by Chairman Judd at 7:56 o'clock, after roll call, when a quorum was found present.

Hustace, Lane, and Lucas, as candidates for Mayor, came onto the platform to affirm that they would abide by the result of the balloting.

Lucas led onto the platform and received the largest hand from those in the house.

Would-Be Mayors Speak
Lucas advanced to the edge of the platform after the pledge, and said: "Gentlemen, I want to say that if I am defeated here, I shall vote for the man who beats me."

Shouts of enthusiasm greeted him. Hustace made the same pledge, "Gentlemen," he said, "I pledge myself to abide by the outcome of this convention, and will support the ticket as nominated here." Bursts of applause.

Lane said: "My record as a man speaks for itself. I will take the outcome of the convention at your hands and if not nominated I feel that I'll be true to the Republican cause in this County."

The candidates for Supervisorial positions then took the pledge.

Mr. Ahia for Supervisor said: "I am not here for fun, but am here to use my ability if elected to the office. I am a party man. Being the first speaker, I ask you to elect me as a Supervisor. My election is the victory of the Republican party."

I. Nauha for Supervisor said: "Gentlemen, you are assembled here tonight under the call of our law. I am a labor man, a hard-working man. I hope you will elect me."

Nakapahu said: "I am a new-born child in politics and I ask you to elect me to the office."

Wm. Aylett said: "It seems as if I am walking on the sea. You have the smiles which I hope will elect me."

George Wright said: "With your smiling appearance tonight I hope you will give me your support."

Watkins said he stood on the platform and would abide by the action of the convention.

Liliakani grew sentimental. "Gentlemen, I thank you for this honor," he said. "God be with you!"

Dwight nominated Harry Auld.
